[City] resident receives national award from American Legion Auxiliary

INDIANAPOLIS – [NAME], a resident of [CITY] and member of local American Legion Auxiliary [UNIT NAME AND NUMBER] was recently recognized by the national organization as [STATE]'s Unit Member of the Year.

The award, presented annually at the American Legion Auxiliary's national convention, showcases the dedication and time spent that Auxiliary go-getters devote to the organization's mission of serving veterans, the military and their families.

The Unit Member of the Year award recognizes women serving at the unit level who exemplify the values and ideals of the American Legion Auxiliary and whose accomplishments significantly impact the program work in their units. [RECIPIENT'S LAST NAME]'s Auxiliary unit nominated her for the award and submitted the nomination to the state-level Auxiliary.

American Legion Auxiliary members have dedicated themselves for nearly a century to meeting the needs of our nation's veterans, military and their families both here and abroad. They volunteer millions of hours yearly, with a value of more than $3 billion. As part of the world's largest women's patriotic service organization, Auxiliary volunteers across the country also step up to honor veterans and military through annual scholarships and with ALA Girls State programs, teaching high school juniors to be leaders grounded in patriotism and Americanism.
