

AMERICANISM BULLETIN DECEMBER 2017

HAPPY HOLIDAYS TO ALL. Hoping this finds you flying your Flags Proud and High. Remember every day is appropriate to fly the American Flag. Remind others and share your knowledge. United States Flag information can be found at <http://www.usflag.org>. Other informational resources include:

- Indivisible: The Story of Our Flag www.legion.org/flag
- The National Flag Day Foundation www.flagday.org
- United States Flag Information www.usflag.org
- Pocket Flag Project www.pocketflagproject.com
- National Emblem Sales www.emblem.legion.org (Flag Education DVD)
- Citizens Flag Alliance www.citizensflagalliance.org
- Flag History, Trivia and Betsy Ross www.ushistory.org

We teach our youth the importance of Patriotism and Americanism by increasing awareness through participation in our American Essay Contest. If you haven't already visit your schools today. All forms and instructions are on our ALA website. Please remember to attach a cover sheet to the essay's you are presenting for Department and National Awards. Reviewing the "Plan of Action" understanding and ideas. I have not yet received any suggestions for next year's Essay Titles. Please remember that they need to be approved at DEC in January.

Also remember our National Chairman, Martha Corriher's essay contest for all senior members. They are due to her by January 5, 2018. Send to: ncusa1993@hotmail.com.

THANK YOU ALL FOR ALL THAT YOU DO TO SUPPORT AMERICANISM
