November - December Bulletin

As we approach the holiday season it is important that we remember those who served and are continuing to serve. Our goal is to reach out to every veteran whether they are active or not. Many of us are enjoying the comforts of our homes while there are many veterans who are not so fortunate. Our national day of remembering is November 28, please do what you can to remember and appreciate those that have given for our country.

The mid-year report will be on the web site by November 1, 2017. My intention was to have everything completed by this mailing however, with the passing of my significant other William "Bill" Murphy earlier this month it has thrown everything into a tail spin, I hope you all understand.

Wishing you all a safe and happy Holiday Season.

Thank you

Yours in Service.
