

CHILDREN & YOUTH BULLETIN III

November 11, 2017 - Veteran's Day

Where can we get your ideas for working the Children and Youth program? Looking for new ideas check out the National's Facebook page, join C & Y program page. What great way to see what other Units and Districts are doing. And it's a great opportunity for you to post your Unit or District's event.

Let's see what we DO know?

1. When is Children & Youth month? APRIL
2. Do you have to wait till April to host a C & Y activity? No
3. What day is Military Kids Day? What color do we wear? April 15- Purple Up
4. Where would you find children for the Youth Hero or Good Deeds awards?

Newspapers, our social medias (newspapers & internet), schools/teachers, youth groups such as Girls Scouts, Boy Scouts, ROTC and school clubs and please don't forget our ALA Juniors.

Have you started planning C & Y events for the holidays? How about a game night or a holiday dinners for families. If you are! Be sure to recognize those children that are experiencing separation from their parent or parents during the holiday season.

Finding it hard to keeping track of your hours, donations or how many veterans, families or children who benefitted from your events or activities. Then try to remember all the details on your Mid-Year reports what you did in September? Or for the Year End reports in June? We are all busy and by the time we are writing our reports in January or May we have forgotten all the details of those events, so I would like ask YOU! "After your Children & Youth activity, write your Unit report be sure to include Who, When, What, Why and Where include a few pictures with your Unit & District number then email or mail it to your District Chairman and me.

Do you know! What country has the world's longest surviving written charter of government.

It's the United States of America, followed by Norway, which had its constitution enacted in 1814, followed by the Belgium constitution that dates back to 1831.
