

National President's Top Recruiter Award

Auxiliary Members,

The National President's Top Recruiter Award is a great way to engage in friendly competition while increasing the strength of our organization.

- Players: American Legion Auxiliary members
- Rules of the Game: Members will recruit as many new junior or senior members as they can. Departments will track the recruitment of each member, assigning 2 points for every new senior member and 1 point for every new junior member.
- Game Winners: The top recruiter from each state will be sent to their Divisional Membership Chairman. Each Divisional Chairman will select one "Top Recruiter". These five winners (one from each division) will receive a "Top Recruiters" award and $300!
- All other recruiters will be entered into a cash drawing. Ten people total will win $100!

Step by Step:

1. Member recruits three members, fills out the entry form and forwards it to their Department.
2. Department verifies and begins to track points for their member. 2 points for every new senior member and 1 point for every new junior member.
3. Departments total up the points for each of their recruiting members. The member with the most points will be submitted to the appropriate Divisional Chairman by July 1, 2009
4. Chairman will review the candidates, one from each state in their division, and select one "Top Recruiter" (the person with the most points) from their division.
5. These five "Top Recruiters" will receive a special award and $300
6. All recruiters will be entered into a cash drawing. Submissions must be post marked to National Headquarters no later than July 1.

Employees of the Auxiliary (Department and National levels) are NOT eligible
