

1. The Chairman's allowance shall be as budgeted by the Finance Committee. The Chairman shall submit an end-of-year statement of the expenses incurred and proposed recommendations affecting the program budget for the next year to the Finance Committee by May 1.
2. The Chairman shall be informed of the Department President's itinerary for media coverage. The Chairman is authorized to use additional funds other than budgeted for expenses in publicizing the activities of the Department President, visiting National Officers, and state-wide programs. Additional expenditures must be authorized in advance by the department President and the Finance Committee.
3. To promote better community coverage utilizing all forms of media including the platform of social media such as Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram, Units and Districts shall be encouraged to cooperate fully on areas of common interest. The Chairman shall inform Units and Districts of all information and instructional material relative to publicity furnished by the National Organization and encourage cooperation for special projects or questionnaires. (2022)
 - 3.a. Managing social media risks: Leaks or harmful usage on social media. Risk to consider when using social media includes the potential misuse including intellectual property and/or employee/volunteer misconduct. Do not post political content, gossip, or air dirty laundry. Do not post items unrelated to the ALA or our mission. Do not respond negatively to messages and comments. Using social media tools can have a great impact on how people view our department/unit and the ALA. Social media can be a quick, easy way to spread your message, engage in conversation with others, promote active participation from your members, and possibly recruit new members. Just remember that the impact you want is a positive one; therefore, think before you post. (2023)
